- You must pay your entire filing fee before you make any more payments or transfer any more property to an attorney, bankruptcy petition preparer, or anyone else for services in connection with your bankruptcy case.
- You must pay the entire fee no later than 120 days after you first file for bankruptcy, unless the court later extends your deadline. Your debts will not be discharged until your entire fee is paid.
- If you do not make any payment when it is due, your bankruptcy case may be dismissed, and your rights in other bankruptcy proceedings may be affected.

Order Approving Payment of Filing Fee in Installments

After considering the Application for Individuals to Pay the Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form B 3A), the court orders that:

- [] The debtor(s) may pay the filing fee in installments on the terms proposed in the application.
- [] The debtor(s) must pay the filing fee according to the following terms:

	You must pay		On or before this date
		$	Month / day / year
		$	Month / day / year
		$	Month / day / year
	+	$	Month / day / year
Total		$

Until the filing fee is paid in full, the debtor(s) must not make any additional payment or transfer any additional property to an attorney or to anyone else for services in connection with this case.
